Numb. 3106

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1744.

Madrid, January 27.

ALL the Diſcourſe here turns upon the Treaty ſaid to be concluded between his Imperial Majeſty, the moſt Chriſtian and moſt Catholick Kings, and a certain Prince in Germany, from whence mighty Things are expected, particularly the ſettling Don Philip in Italy; in Conſequence of which he is to make a Ceſſion of his new Conqueſt, to the Duchy of Savoy, to the Crown of France. His Highneſs the Prince of Aſturias, has, for ſome Time kept his Apartment; which, ſome believe, to be only a real Indiſpoſition; whereas others imagine his not appearing in Publick, to avoid the French Ambaſſador, who has lately made ſome Propoſitions, which has given his Royal Highneſs great Offence. This Day a Courier arrived from France, with Diſpatches of great Importance; and at Noon it was publickly declared at Court, that the combined Fleet of the two Crowns would ſail from Toulon on the 20th of next Month, or as ſoon after as Wind and Weather ſhall permit.

Lisbon, January 14. We expect, every Moment, the Fleet from the Bay of All Saints; it will be much richer than uſual, on account of its bringing the Cargo of two Ships inſtead of One. There have been prodigious Rejoicings here, upon the King's Dedication of a Marble Statue to the Honour of the bleſſed Saint and Martyr, Nepomucene, who is the Patron of Navigation. It is not conceived here, that the Marquis de Gandia will make any great Progreſs in his Negotiation; which is known to be grounded on the late Alliance between the Emperor and the Kings of France and Spain, by which it was propoſed the King of Portugal ſhould

Turin, January 28. The following Proclamation was publiſhed here, with Relation to the Countries yielded to his Sardinian Majeſty by the Treaty of Worms.

"We George de Lobkowitz, Prince, &c. Her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, our Sovereign, having yielded to his Majeſty the King of Sardinia, in Virtue of a Treaty concluded at Worms, the 13th of September laſt Year, the Countries mentioned in the ſecond Article of the ſaid Treaty, which is here recited word for word; and we being thereunto empowered, by Virtue of her Majeſty's Inſtrument for that Purpoſe, to put the King of Sardinia into the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Countries, We declare and make known by theſe Preſents, Letters Patent, the Ceſſion of the ſaid Towns, Boroughs, Villages, Communities, Lands, and Places, with the Vaſſals and Subjects of the ſaid yielded Countries, of what Rank and Condition ſoever they be, without Exception or Reſerve; and, in Conſequence thereof, we enjoin and command them to acknowledge the before-mentioned King of Sardinia their true and natural Sovereign and Lord. Ordaining theſe Preſents to be publiſhed in all the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, Villages, Communities, Lands and Places, yielded as aforeſaid."

The Prince de Lobkowitz.

Pertuſatus. V. Goldonus Vidonus de Colla.
